Nervously the four children crept towards the window. Aiden felt confident and strong. He had sunning blue eyes, dark brown hair and was scared of almost nothing. Jen was a cry baby scared of every thing. Jade was bossy and thought that she could boss everyone. Mark was brainy and tall. He would check every thing every five seconds. He had green eyes like a small rubber.

Then instantly Aiden turned to Mark and explained, "it could be behind the door." Jen mumbled, "but... but I'm scared!" "Come on, open the stupid door!" shouted Jade there was no chance for the others to quarrel in fact they were all too scared. The plan was ready and they had to move.

He was raising as fast as an air control rocket the confident children entered in the hell hole Room 13. It took a brief second also for their eyes to adjust to the dark of the demon's home. It was right in front of them, as high as Mark's eyes. The blood hovering creature lay inside the hovering hell bed. His crystal skin shimmered in Mark's eyes. Their shadows scattered across the room. It was terrifying.

Instantly Aiden picked up the stake and pointed it at the vampire's heart. Mark got his cross and held it near. Jen got her bottle of holy water and opened issued. Jade got her piece of garlic and was ready to throw it when Aiden stopped her. The vampire's eyes flickered and then they opened. He was surrounded by weapons of doom. He got up in a blink of an eye, Aiden, Mary Jen and Jade sprinted to the vampire and he toppled over. He got back up so Jen threw the holy water at the vampire and the vampire slipped. Aiden sprinted at it and stopped him right in his cold blooded heart. They left the haunted room. They were happy.
